I think about the last few weeks – the packing and the saying goodbye. What will our new house look like?

I know it will be much smaller than any of our houses in South Africa. There won't be a garden or a swimming pool.

Who will my friends be? Will they call me Zack like my friends in South Africa? Maybe I will tell them my name is Zachariah. Zack is funny in Hebrew.

A Helping Hand

We live too far from everyone. I have no one to do homework with. I have no one to visit in the afternoons. I have no one to study with for tests. On Tuesday, there is a big test in history. There are so many things to remember. I don't know what to do!

That night, Naama's mother calls Rina's mother.

Hello, I'm Mrs. Hershman, Naama's mother. You know, your daughter, Rina sits next to Naama at school.

Oh, hello, Mrs. Hershman, oh yes! Naama from the moshav! Rina talks about Naama a lot!

Can Rina come to our house and stay over on Monday night, so that they can study together for the test? It will really help Naama. You know, she has no friends from her class on the moshav.

That's a good idea. Rina will be very happy to come to your house and study with Naama.

Oh, thank you so much!

Naama is so excited that she cannot sleep that night. She keeps waking up and thinking about Rina coming home with her from school.
